Complaint

I, Carolyn L. Cook, received sewer services from Alpine Utilities, Inc., (hereinafter, "Alpine") during my ownership of Windridge Townhomes, located in the 3300 block of Kay Street in Columbia, South Carolina (Richland County), (hereinafter, "Windridge") in a time frame from 1999 until December 28, 2005.

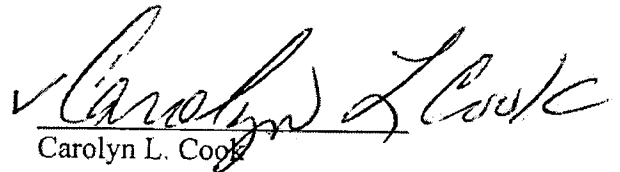

Alpine required me to be responsible for the payment of monthly sewer utility services to my 46 tenants located in 23 duplexes located at Windridge.

On or about October 6, 2003 my husband, James C. Cook, contacted Alpine and informed Alpine of a new state law, Section 27-33-50, which became effective on July 1, 2002. My husband, on my behalf, requested Alpine to establish individual sewer utility accounts with each of the tenants residing at Windridge, in compliance with Section 27-33-50. Alpine refused that request, along with our later requests for Alpine to comply with Section 27-33-50. I have also learned that there are 58 other landlords and owners who may have been required to pay for the sewer utility services for their tenants.

Because Alpine should have known that the law changed on July 1, 2002, and because my husband gave Alpine actual notice of Section 27-33-50 on or about October 6, 2003, I believe that Alpine willfully overcharged me during my period of ownership of Windridge.

Therefore, I would like to file a formal complaint against Alpine, and I am seeking a return of the overcharge pursuant to R. 103. 533 (3), from October 6, 2003 until December 28, 2005.

For the record, I am a General Partner of Happy Rabbit, a South Carolina Limited Partnership, and Happy Rabbit has a Complaint pending with this Commission.

Carolyn L. Cook
